Letter from Munich, May 10, N. S.

UPON the 8th the famous Partiſan la Croix, with between 6 and 700 Men, having been attacked at Pfarkirchen by a Body of Auſtrians, was obliged, after ſome Reſiſtance, to ſurrender himſelf a Priſoner of War, with thoſe of his Party who were not killed in the Engagement. The French that were canton'd round about him, to the Number of 9000 Men, declined giving him any Aſſiſtance, though it was demanded of them ſeveral Times; on the contrary, they withdrew immediately, and fell into ſuch Diſorder, that Marſhal Broglio ordered them to retreat to the other Side of the Iſer; ſo that the French having abandoned all the Country between that River and the Inn, and the Auſtrians having, by that Means, the Way open even to this Place, we are in great Concern for this Capital, and in ſtill greater for the Troops under General Minuzzi at Braunau on this Side the Inn. We are aſſured that the Court will retire from hence; but as yet it is uncertain to what Country or to what City of the Empire.

P. S. We have juſt received the melancholy News, that what we apprehended from the Retreat of the French, has now happened, and that Count Seckendorf's Endeavours to have withdrawn the Troops under General Minuzzi, could not prevent his being attacked by the Auſtrians, who immediately after the Affair of Pfarkirchen fell upon Erlbach, where General Minuzzi was encamped with 7000 Men. A Body of the Enemy attacked him in the Rear, whilſt General Bernies took him in Front. After a vigorous Defence, which laſted near five Hours, and wherein General Minuzzi was wounded and taken Priſoner, the Troops, which he commanded, were all defeated, diſperſed, or made Priſoners of War, excepting 800 Horſe, which the Colonel Neſs brought off, and conducted to Count Seckendorf at Oetingen. The Count de Hollenſtein is mortally wounded. The Generals de Preyſing and Gabrieli were wounded and taken Priſoners. The Regiment of Dragoons of the King of Sweden performed Wonders, but was entirely broken, and Colonel Meerbach who commanded it, is taken Priſoner. We are in Expectation of other Circumſtances attending this Action, which happened on the 9th, and in which it is ſaid that there were a great Number of Officers of Diſtinction killed. Marſhal Broglio continues in the Quarters where he is cantoned, under Pretence of waiting for Tents and other Neceſſaries. People here are in the utmoſt Conſternation.

Petersbourg, April 19. On Sunday laſt Count Oginski had a private Audience of her Imperial Majeſty, and delivered his Credentials as Envoy Extraordinary from the King and Republick of Poland. The ſame Day the Empreſs was preſent at the Launching of an Eighty Gun Ship, called the St. Paul, built in the Admiralty here. After the Ship was launched, her Imperial Majeſty went on board, attended with a numerous Retinue and all the Foreign Miniſters, and ſupped there.

Aix la Chapelle, May 16, *N. Meſſ. de Lautree and Montagu are likewiſe upon their Departure for their reſpective Embaſſies; the former to the Imperial Court, and the latter to Venice.

Hague, May 21. Yeſterday the Poſt from Hanover brought the News of his Majeſty's being arrived there on Friday laſt at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, in perfect Health. The Propoſition of Holland, for ſuccouring the Queen of Hungary, with a Body of 20,000 Men, and concerting with the Courts of England and Vienna, the propereſt Manner of employing them, was finally and formally concluded at the Reſumption in the Aſſembly of the States General laſt Saturday; and the Council of State are actually ſettling the Liſt of General Officers who are to command them, amongſt which none of the foreign Generals, lately taken into the States Service, are like to be comprehended, and pitching upon the Regiments which are to compoſe this Corps.
